

Proclamation

BY THE STATE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

Public Schools Week

WHEREAS: all public school students in the State of Wisconsin deserve a safe, equitable, and engaging education, as well as highly qualified educators, staff, and administrators; and

WHEREAS: Public Schools Week brings together school leaders, educators, school board members, parents, and community leaders to recognize the importance of our public schools and our students' futures; and

WHEREAS: the need for quality public education is a nonpartisan issue as public education is delineated as a right in Wisconsin under Article X, Section 3 of our state's constitution, and our public education system requires the support and investment of our state and local elected officials to provide ample funding and foster strong educational outcomes for all students; and

WHEREAS: Wisconsinites take great pride in our public schools, which provide excellent opportunities for kids in academics, sports, the arts, career and technical education training, and extracurricular activities, serving as an integral part of a thriving community; and

WHEREAS: this week, we honor our public schools and educators who have answered the call for generations to cultivate the future leaders of our families, our communities, and our state;

THEREFORE: I, Jill K. Underly, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, do hereby proclaim in the state of Wisconsin,

Public Education Week

February 27 – March 3, 2023

Jill K. Underly, PhD, State Superintendent

